Announcements.

We are authorized to present the name of Col. A. S. Prather as a candidate for the office of Recorder for Taney county, subject to the decision of the Republican primary of convention.

Nobody has reported the fruit all killed yet this season. The knocker is evidently sleeping on his opportunities.

It costs a dollar to lick Governor Jeff Davis of Arkansas, but considering the sort of governor he is it is doubtful if it is worth the price.

If the American manufacturer, equipped with the latest in the way of labor-saving devices, can barely compete with the foreign nations which are under the beneficent influence of free trade, what would it profit him to throw open his home market to the products of the countries where human labor is so cheap that it is more profitable to use it than to invest in machinery?

Colonel Prather for Recorder.

In this issue of the Republican Col. A. S. Prather announces his candidacy for the office of Recorder. Colonel Prather is too well known in Taney county for the Republican to presume to introduce him, having come to the county 20 years ago. During all this time he has been an active citizen and Republican. Of his ability there is no manner of doubt. His deserts here content for the people to pass upon, reminding them that he has stood by them unflinchingly, through evil as well as good, and that in his 20 years' residence he has held office for but 350 days for which he received compensation, and that he feels that he ought to be permitted to sit for four years in the court house he built sixteen years ago, in a position in which there is some compensation, that he may acquire something to depend upon in his declining years.

Administrator's Notice.

Notice is hereby given that letters of administration upon the estate of Jacob R. Prather, deceased, have been granted to the undersigned by the Probate court of Taney county, Missouri, bearing date the 15th day of May, 1906.

It Quiets the Cough

This is one reason why Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is so valuable in consumption. It stops the wear and tear of useless coughing. But it does more—it controls the inflammation, quiets the fever, soothes, and heals. Sold for 60 years.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has been a regular "servant" to me. It brought me through a severe attack of pneumonia, and I feel that I owe my life to a wonderful curative property. —WILLIAM H. TRUITT, Warren, Mo.

Contest Notice.

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, Springfield, Missouri, January 1, 1906. A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Maude Lehart, contestant, against homestead entry No. 24851, made October 24, 1905, for northeast 1/4 of the northeast 1/4 of section 19, township 22 n., range 20 w., by Gerry Burgess, contestee, in which it is alleged that said Gerry Burgess has failed to establish his residence upon the said land as required by law.

Said parties are hereby notified to appear, testify and offer evidence touching said allegation at a contest hearing to be held on the 10th day of February, next, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the Probate court of Taney county, Missouri, and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m., on Feb. 23, 1906, before the register and member of the United States Land Office at Springfield, Missouri.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit filed January 6, 1906, set forth facts which show that after due diligence on her part, she cannot make the proof required by law, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.

Order of Publication.

State of Missouri, ss. County of Taney.

In the Probate Court for the County of Taney and State of Missouri, February term, A. D. 1906.

R. C. Ford, administrator of the estate of Smith Hewitt, deceased, and presents to the court his petition praying for an order for the sale of so much of the real estate of said deceased as will pay and satisfy the remaining debts due by said estate and yet unpaid for want of sufficient assets, accompanied by the accounts, lists and inventories required by law in such case, on examination whereof it is ordered that all persons interested in the estate of said deceased be notified that application as aforesaid has been made, and that unless the contrary be shown on or before the first day of the next term of this court, to be held on the 2nd Monday of February, next, an order will be made for the sale of the whole or so much of the real estate of the said deceased as will be sufficient for the payment of said debts; and it is further ordered that this notice be published in some newspaper in this county for four weeks, before the next term of this court; and it is further ordered that certified copy of this order be duly served upon the heirs of said deceased, residents of said county and state, Missouri.

State of Missouri, County of Taney: ss. I, J. T. Dickenson, judge and ex-officio clerk of the Probate court in and for said county, hereby certify that the above is a true copy of the original order of publication therein referred to, as the same appears of record in my office.

Witness my hand and seal of our said court, at my office in the town of Forsyth in said county, this 10th day of November, A. D. 1905.

J. T. DICKENSON, Judge and Ex-Officio Clerk.

Branson. Charles R. Fulbright is in town. The cable for the new ferry near Roark creek was put up today.

Mr. Arline and seven men will begin the stone work for the water tank tomorrow.

The rafters were raised on the depot today. When it is finished the section house will be built.

J. W. Trout is here to superintend the building of the foundry to make castings for his hay press.

The remains of the negro who was buried near the track about a year ago, will be disinterred and taken elsewhere.

Truman S. Powell of Notch, Mo., Dr. Henson of Galena, Mo., T. W. Caulkins and Sam Rangan of Carthage, Mo., were registered at the Branson hotel Saturday.

Passenger service will begin Jan. 21 on the remainder of the White River railway. The first excursion to this place will be the Editors' Association Jan. 26. Editors form public opinion, make one's reputation, advertise places, entertain subscribers and advise them concerning opportunities far and near. Their coming here means much for Branson and Taney county when they each report the trip.

The Commercial Club was making walks of sawdust today. The members of the club are well aware that the work is not lasting, but the spirit of civic pride and of working in harmony engendered shall live long after the sawdust has disappeared, and result in permanent walks and many other things necessary to a live town.

Mr. Heron, R. R. engineer, run(?) the line; Mr. Edsall set the stakes; Dr. Smart chopped and dynamited stumps; Floyd Jones, Ernest Cox, Edmister's and other hired teams hauled sawdust; Higdon Melton, V. C. Todd, Dr. Burdett, Wm. Maddux and Charlie Thompson wielded shovels; Manfred Breeden and Town Jones threw rocks out of the way, and Charlie Fulbright looked on. Patterson Bros. and others contributed money to hire men and teams. It is a good sign that men are in earnest when they give time, money and energy to improve the town.

January 15.

W. H. Mason has just completed a five month term of school in the Mt. Olive district and begun on an additional month. Pedagogue Mason seems to be making good.

WALNUT SHADE, MO.

I am a farmer and stock-raiser, and have personal knowledge of the lands I handle. Whether you want to go into fruit or stock-raising, or intend to confine your attention to plain farming, I can suit you. I place my own teams at the disposal of homeseekers, and show farms, without livery charges, to purchasers. Correspondence solicited.
